

Science – Knowledge Organiser Year 2 Spring 2 Food Chains
Vocabulary		Food chain
Food	A source of energy for animals	  Carrot  Plant  ➔  Rabbit  Herbivore  ➔  Fox  Carnivore
Food chain	A diagram that shows what eats what
Herbivore	An animal which only eats plants
Carnivore	An animal which only eats other animals
Omnivore	An animal which eats both plants and animals
Algae	A slimy, green plant which lives in water
Habitat	The type of environment where a living thing normally lives
Habitats

Woodland	Ocean

Seashore	Rainforest
	Plants	Herbivores

	Use sunlight energy to make their own food	An animal which eats plants
		Carnivores

		An animal which eats meat (other animals)